

LIVE UNITED™

HOW TO LIVE UNITED:

GIVE $1. GIVE $26. GIVE $104.

GIVE WHAT YOU CAN

REACH OUT A HAND TO ONE AND

INFLUENCE

THE CONDITION OF ALL.

Your payroll deduction adds up!

$26 per year results in:

- an exercise class at YMCA for a mother and her toddler
- one high school student attending Teen Institute, teaching her to stay away from alcohol, drugs, violence and other dangerous behaviors
- an hour of training for a child advocate through Voices for Children/CASA of Hancock County

$52 per year results in:

- 100 workbooks for fourth-graders about the dangers of using tobacco and how to resist peer pressure to smoke
- four hours of emergency room support for a sexually assaulted woman
- 33 one-way trips with HATS (to the doctor, to the store, to church)

$104 per year results in:

- two hours of supervised visitation for an abused child
- a week's worth of food for a family of four after a house fire
- four cases of nutritional supplements for a cancer patient
